

Date 19th September 2017

1. Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation is Houghton Regis Heritage Society

2. The principal office of Houghton Regis Heritage Society (HRHS) is located in England.

3. Objects

To advance the education of the public in the history and heritage of the town of Houghton Regis, in particular but not exclusively through the collection, preservation and making available to the public of material and artefacts of historic significance by the establishment and maintenance of an archive and collection for the preservation of such material and artefacts and by the production of literature, films and recordings.

4. Powers

HRHS has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, HRHS powers include power to:

- 4.1 borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. HRHS must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- 4.2 buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- 4.3 sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to HRHS. In exercising this power, HRHS must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;
- 4.4 employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of HRHS. HRHS may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- 4.5 deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of HRHS to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

5. Application of income and property

- 5.1 The income and property of HRHS must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - 5.1.1 A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of HRHS or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of HRHS.
 - 5.1.2 A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at HRHS's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 5.2 None of the income or property of HRHS may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of HRHS. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - 5.2.1 a benefit from HRHS as a beneficiary of HRHS;
 - 5.2.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to HRHS.
- 5.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

6.1 General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- 6.1.1 buy or receive any goods or services from HRHS on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- 6.1.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to HRHS;
- 6.1.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, HRHS;
- 6.1.4 receive any other financial benefit from HRHS;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by clause 6.2, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.2 Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

6.2.1 A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from HRHS as a beneficiary of HRHS provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.

6.2.2 A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to HRHS where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.

6.2.3 Subject to clause 6.3 a charity trustee or connected person may provide HRHS with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to HRHS by the charity trustee or connected person.

6.2.4 A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to HRHS at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

6.2.5 A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to HRHS. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

6.2.6 A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of HRHS on the same terms as members of the public.

6.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

HRHS and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by clause 6.2.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

6.3.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between HRHS and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

- 6.3.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- 6.3.3 The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of HRHS to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- 6.3.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to HRHS.
- 6.3.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- 6.3.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- 6.3.7 A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

6.4 In clauses 6.2 and 6.3:

- 6.4.1 HRHS includes any company in which HRHS:
 - 6.4.1.1 holds more than 50 per cent of the shares; or
 - 6.4.1.2 controls more than 50 per cent of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - 6.4.1.3 has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
- 6.4.2 “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause 29 (Interpretation).

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

- 7.1 A charity trustee must:
 - 7.1.1 declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with HRHS or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by HRHS which has not previously been declared; and

7.1.2 absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of HRHS and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

7.2 Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of HRHS if it is wound up

8.1 If HRHS is wound up, each member of HRHS is liable to contribute to the assets of HRHS such amount (but not more than £1) as may be required for payment of the debts and liabilities of HRHS contracted before that person or organisation ceases to be a member, for payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for adjustment of the rights of the contributing members among themselves.

8.2 In clause 8.1 “member” includes any person or organisation that was a member of HRHS within 12 months before the commencement of the winding up.

8.3 But subject to that, the members of HRHS have no liability to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, and accordingly have no personal responsibility for the settlement of its debts and liabilities beyond the amount that they are liable to contribute.

9. Membership of HRHS

9.1 Admission of New Members

9.1.1 Eligibility

Membership of HRHS is open to anyone who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his, her or its agreement to become a member and acceptance of the duty of members set out in clause 9.3.

A member may be an individual, a person representing a corporate body, or an individual representing an organisation which is not incorporated.

9.1.2 Admission procedure

The charity trustees:

9.1.2.1 may require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;

- 9.1.2.2 shall, if they approve an application for membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
- 9.1.2.3 may refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interests of HRHS for them to do so;
- 9.1.2.4 shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- 9.1.2.5 shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

9.2 Transfer of membership

Membership of HRHS cannot be transferred to anyone else except in the case of an individual representing an organisation which is not incorporated, whose membership may be transferred by the unincorporated organisation to a new representative. Such transfer of membership does not take effect until HRHS has received written notification of the transfer.

9.3 Duty of members

It is the duty of each member of HRHS to exercise his or her powers as a member of HRHS in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of HRHS.

9.4 Termination of membership

- 9.4.1 Membership of HRHS comes to an end if:
 - 9.4.1.1 the member dies, or, in the case of an organisation (or the representative of an organisation) that organisation ceases to exist; or
 - 9.4.1.2 the member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or
 - 9.4.1.3 any sum of money owed by the member to HRHS is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
 - 9.4.1.4 the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of HRHS that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

- 9.4.2 Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of HRHS they must:
- 9.4.2.1 inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
 - 9.4.2.2 give the member at least 21 clear days notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;
 - 9.4.2.3 at a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees, consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;
 - 9.4.2.4 consider at that meeting any representations which the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
 - 9.4.2.5 allow the member, or the member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

- 9.5 Membership Fees
HRHS may require members to pay reasonable membership fees to HRHS.

10. Members' Decisions

- 10.1 General Provisions
Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in clause 10.4, decisions of the members of HRHS may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in clause 10.2 or by written resolution as provided in clause 10.3.
- 10.2 Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to clause 10.4, any decision of the members of HRHS may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including votes cast by postal or email ballot, and proxy votes, if such voting is decided upon by the trustees).
- 10.3 Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting
- 10.3.1 Subject to clause 10.4, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:

- 10.3.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
 - 10.3.1.2 a simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature (or in the case of an organisation which is a member, by execution according to its usual procedure), by a statement of their identity accompanying the document, or in such other manner as HRHS has specified.
- 10.3.2 The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members has signified their agreement.
- 10.3.3 Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of HRHS on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with 10.3.1 above.
- 10.3.4 Not less than 10 per cent of the members of HRHS may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members.
- 10.3.5 The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:
- 10.3.5.1 The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
 - 10.3.5.2 The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and
 - 10.3.5.3 Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.
- 10.3.6 Clauses 10.3.1 to 10.3.3 apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

11. General Meetings of Members

- 11.1 Types of meeting

There must be an annual general meeting (AGM) of the members of HRHS. The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of HRHS, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause 13.

- 11.2.3 If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the members of HRHS for more than 12 months, then clause 11.2.2.1 shall have effect as if 5 per cent were substituted for 10 per cent.
- 11.2.4 Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- 11.2.5 A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- 11.2.6 Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the members of HRHS must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.

- 11.3 Notice of General Meetings
 - 11.3.1 The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of HRHS, must give at least 14 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the members.
 - 11.3.2 If it is agreed by not less than 90 per cent of all members of HRHS, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of clause 11.3.1 have not been met.  - 11.3.3.5 include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re- election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 21 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on HRHS's website.
- 11.3.4 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- 11.3.4 The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by HRHS.
- 11.4 Chairing general meetings

The person nominated as chair by the charity trustees under clause 18.2 (Chairing of meetings), shall, if present at the general meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to HRHS's members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.
- 11.5.5 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- 11.5.6 If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.
- 11.6 Voting at Meetings
- 11.6.1 Any decision other than one falling within clause 10.4 (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes if agreed by the trustees). Every member has one vote.
- 11.6.2 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10 per cent of the members present in person.
- 11.6.3 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. 17.2 This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the charity trustees, but is subject to the following requirements -

Appendix

The following provisions do not form part of the 'Association' model constitution but are available as options under clauses 11 (General meetings of members) and 22 (Use of electronic communications). For HRHSs intending to include these powers in their constitutions, we recommend that you use the following wording. Notes on these clauses are included with the explanatory notes accompanying the clauses in the model.

General meetings of members

(7) Proxy voting

(a) Any member of HRHS may appoint another person as a proxy to exercise all or any of that member's rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of HRHS.

Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

(i) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

(ii) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(iii) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as HRHS may determine; and

(iv) is delivered to HRHS in accordance with the constitution and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

(b) HRHS may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

(c) Proxy notices may (but do not have to) specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

(d) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

(i) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

(ii) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

(e) A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to HRHS by or on behalf of that member.

(f) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to HRHS a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

(g) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

(h) If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the member appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that member's behalf had authority to do so.

(8) Postal Voting

(a) HRHS may, if the charity trustees so decide, allow the members to vote by post or electronic mail ("email") to elect charity trustees or to make a decision on any matter that is being decided at a general meeting of the members.

(b) The charity trustees must appoint at least two persons independent of HRHS to serve as scrutineers to supervise the conduct of the postal/email ballot and the counting of votes.

(c) If postal and/or email voting is to be allowed on a matter, HRHS must send to members of HRHS not less than [21] days before the deadline for receipt of votes cast in this way:

(i) a notice by email, if the member has agreed to receive notices in this way under clause [22] (Use of electronic communications), including an explanation of the purpose of the vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member, and a voting form capable of being returned by email or post to HRHS, containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable;

(ii) a notice by post to all other members, including a written explanation of the purpose of the postal vote and the voting procedure to be followed by the member; and a postal voting form containing details of the resolution being put to a vote, or of the candidates for election, as applicable.

(d) The voting procedure must require all forms returned by post to be in an envelope with the member's name and signature, and nothing else, on the outside, inside another envelope addressed to 'The Scrutineers for [name of HRHS]', at HRHS's principal office or such other postal address as is specified in the voting procedure.

(e) The voting procedure for votes cast by email must require the member's name to be at the top of the email, and the email must be authenticated in the manner specified in the voting procedure.

(f) Email votes must be returned to an email address used only for this purpose and must be accessed only by a scrutineer.

(g) The voting procedure must specify the closing date and time for receipt of votes, and must state that any votes received after the closing date or not complying with the voting procedure will be invalid and not be counted.

(h) The scrutineers must make a list of names of members casting valid votes, and a separate list of members casting votes which were invalid. These lists must be provided to a charity trustee or other person overseeing admission to, and voting at, the general meeting. A member who has cast a valid postal or email vote must not vote at the meeting, and must not be counted in the quorum for any part of the meeting on which he, she or it has already cast a valid vote. A member who has cast an invalid vote by post or email is allowed to vote at the meeting and counts towards the quorum.

(i) For postal votes, the scrutineers must retain the internal envelopes (with the member's name and signature). For email votes, the scrutineers must cut off and retain any part of the email that includes the member's name. In each case, a scrutineer must record on this evidence of the member's name that the vote has been counted, or if the vote has been declared invalid, the reason for such declaration.

(j) Votes cast by post or email must be counted by all the scrutineers before the meeting at which the vote is to be taken. The scrutineers must provide to the person chairing the meeting written confirmation of the number of valid votes received by post and email and the number of votes received which were invalid.

(k) The scrutineers must not disclose the result of the postal/email ballot until after votes taken by hand or by poll at the meeting, or by poll after the meeting, have been counted. Only at this point shall the scrutineers declare the result of the valid votes received, and these votes shall be included in the declaration of the result of the vote.

(l) Following the final declaration of the result of the vote, the scrutineers must provide to a charity trustee or other authorised person bundles containing the evidence of members submitting valid postal votes; evidence of members submitting valid email votes; evidence of invalid votes; the valid votes; and the invalid votes.

(m) Any dispute about the conduct of a postal or email ballot must be referred initially to a panel set up by the charity trustees, to consist of two trustees and two persons independent of HRHS. If the dispute cannot be satisfactorily resolved by the panel, it must be referred to the Electoral Reform Services.
